2 After a discussion of all the merits of the case, the assent of the Members has been received for this appointment. It is latter unfortunate that the papers did not in the earlier stages pass through the Financial Branch which would doubtless have laid the facts bare. Under the peculiar circumstances of the case, the order, it seems, should be confirmed. But it is submitted that the decision of the pay of Mr. Simpson, who for this Rs 370 admitted for Combined Establishment, need not be defined and that his pay may be fixed at Rs 250 from the date of his duty at the Fort Stables.

3 Confirm the order & then submit the case for Dewan's order on the point raised at A. I quite agree that Mr. Simpson's pay may be ~~should be~~ readjusted alone as he has ceased to be in charge of the Fort Stables. He is now only the Chief Veterinary officer of the Mysore State Troops and a pay of Rs 370/- is certainly too high for the appt.

is that Mr. Simpson's salary may be declared to be Rs 250 + 120 personal allowance so that the post may not be lost sight of on a change of incumbent.

Submitted file with Hd Clerk's memo. 6/6/10.

6 Mr. Simpson was getting Rs 250/- as Supt of Govt stables; when he was appointed Vety Officer in addn he was given Rs 120 as extra allowance. Now the main appointment for which he was drawing Rs 250/- has been taken away & only the minor addl appt for which he was drawing Rs 120/- kept to him. Should he get Rs 370/- for the minor appt now? And what is this minor appt? Is appt the security which is, to say the least, open to question. For a long time there was no chief Vety Officer. Even now the I. S. Regt the Local Service Regt & the I. S. T. Corps has each got its duly qualified Veterinarian. For difficult cases we have got Mr. Davidson at Kurnool for consultation. The creation of the appt of chief Vety Officer on a pay of Rs 370/- is therefore financially objectionable. The Dewan's proposal above amounts to creating the post of Chief Vety Offr on Rs 250/- permanently together with a personal allce of Rs 120/- so long as Mr Simpson is the incumbent. But the necessity of this ~~[illegible]~~ is not clear. Mr Simpson should be given some appt suitable to him & if Govt think that his pay cannot now be reduced below Rs 370 he may continue to draw that rate of pay. But the creation of an appt of Chief Vety Offr on Rs 250/- need not be authorized. If a whole time chief vety offr is necessary (which I doubt), his pay may be fixed at Rs 120/- Mr Simpson's pay so long as he continues Chief Vety Offr may be shown as Rs 120 pay plus 250 P.A. Personally however I do not see why Mr Simpson's pay should not be readjusted at once.

Submitted to His Highness.

9 Consequent on the appointment of J.A.Ramble as Superintendent of Government Stables, the Financial Secretary notes that Mr. R.W. Simpson's pay was raised to Rs.370 on condition of his filling a double appointment, viz. Superintendent of Government Stables and Chief Veterinary Officer of the Mysore State Troops, that Mr. Simpson's emoluments may be now fixed at Rs.250 and that a reduction of Rs.120 seems justifiable as he no longer fills the double appointment.

10 2. The circumstances attending the appointment of Mr. Ramble are well known to His Highness and it is evident that Mr. Simpson should not suffer in emoluments for an act for which he was not responsible.

It does seem hard that Mr.Simpson should be mulcted of a portion of his monthly emoluments at this stage owing to the happening of a contingency for which he was not responsible and over which he had no control. I therefore think with the Dewan that Mr.Simpson should be allowed to draw his emoluments at Rs.370/- per mensem as heretofore. As regards adjustment it may be treated partly as pay and partly as personal allowance. Mr.Simpson's services could always be availed of in any part of the State where they may be needed, whether for a Military or a Civil purpose. It should however be clearly understood that these emoluments are personal to Mr.Simpson and that they cannot be claimed by his successor in office should the appointment of Chief Veterinary Officer be continued. 12 It is respectfully submitted that his Highness' orders appear to be for the edification of this Office and do not call for communication either to the Comptroller or the Chief Commandant.

13 A draft as directed is however put up for approval or other orders.

14 Perhaps the Comptroller has also told that his pension pay has been fixed at 250+120 P.A. and that this pay is personal to him. There seems to be no necessity at present to inform the pay of the A.D.C. Chief Veh. Officer no to take any more action. Draft as ordered is however submitted.

15 I see no objn to the issue of the draft.
